Numb. 2025

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Monday, April 13. to Thursday April 16. 1685.

Whitehall, April 15.

THE following Addresses have been Presented to His Majesty, who received them very Graciously.

To the Kings most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of your Majesties Lieutenant, and Deputy-Lieutenants for the County of Nottingham.

SHEWETH,

THat as the Affliction for the Death of the best Prince in the World, CHARLES the Second of Blessed Memory, came the nearest to our Souls of any that hath ever befaln us; So our only support under it hath been the happy Accession of your Majesty to the Throne of Your Royal Progenitors, Your indubitable Right.

The unaccountable loss of so Excellent a King and Father of His Country, First, We humbly take leave, justly to Condole and to bear a part with your Majesty in the publick Sorrow, as we have a share in the common Misfortune; And then to Congratulate your Majesties most happy and peaceable Establishment, as a Blessing alone able to ballance the former Loss: And we present our unfeigned Thanks to God and your Majesty for Your late Gracious Declaration; And do assure your Majesty, that out of a fundamental principle of Religion, upon which our Loyalty is bottom'd (though your Majesty had made no such Declaration) We will sacrifice our Lives and Fortunes to the safety of your Royal Person, and in defence of your Crown and Government; And never cease to pray for your Majesties long and prosperous Reign.

To the Kings most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayors, Bayliffs, Jurats and Commons of the Cinque Ports, two antient Towns and their Members assembled at a special Guestling holden at New Romney in the County of Kent the 31 day of March, Anno Dom. 1685. in the First Year of your Majesties Reign.

May it please your most Excellent Majesty,

NOthing could have alleviated our great Sorrow for the Death of His late Majesty, of ever Blessed Memory, but your Majesties rightful and lineal Accession to the Imperial Crown of these Realms.

We are extreamly sensible of the great Priviledges we enjoy by the Grants from the Royal Bounty of your Majesties Progenitors, and by your Majesties gracious preservation of them as our Lord Warden.

Out of a deep sense therefore of your Majesties Princely Protection, we do resolve and declare, that we will not Elect or admit into any Office or place of Trust (within our power) any Persons that abetted or voted for that diabolical and unjust Bill of Exclusion, designed to involve us in Blood, and to destroy the Constitution of the antient Monarchy of your Majesties Kingdoms. And further add, That we do readily acknowledge our Lord Wardens right of Recommendation of one Member for each Port to serve in Parliament.

We render your Majesty most humble and hearty thanks for your Majesties Gracious Declaration, and we return your Majesty the tender of our Lives and Fortunes and the next dearest things to us, our Priviledges and our general Charter by which we enjoy them, herewith humbly laying the same at your Majesties Feet.

May the Providence of Heaven (the known Guardian of Kings) make Your Life and Reign over us long and prosperous, the ready Obedience of Your Subjects easie and pleasant, and the Successes over Your Enemies Glorious and Triumphant, is the unanimous hearty Prayer of Your Majesties most Dutiful and Obedient Subjects.

To the Kings most Sacred Majesty,

The Humble Address of the Bayliff, and Burghers of the Borough of Midhurst in the County of Sussex, the 13th day of March, 1684. at their Election of Burgesses for the ensuing Parliament.

Most Dread Soveraign.

WHilst your Majesty is Graciously pleased to receive the daily Address of your Loyal Subjects; we most Humbly beg leave to express our Duty, and having heartily Condoled the Death of his late most Sacred Majesty, humbly to Congratulate your peaceable Succession in the Throne, in which God and your undoubted Hereditary Right have so Gloriously placed you.

Those assurances we enjoy of your Royal Favour to be thus Protected in our Religion and our Laws command the just returns of our humblest Thanks and most Dutiful Allegiance. And we have endeavoured with the greatest sincerity to express our Loyalty by this day choosing for Members of the ensuing Parliament, (though zealously Sollicited to another kind of Choice) such Loyal Gentlemen as have been approv'd under the extream'st Obloquies of the worst of Times. Nor can we doubt their being our faithful Representatives to study the support and maintain the Dignity of your Imperial Crown; That if Lives and Interest, and whatsoever is dear can intitle us to it, we may for ever approve our selves,

Dread SIR,

Your Majesties most Dutiful and most Loyal Subjects.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Provest, Bailies, and Common-Council of His Majesties Royal Burghe of Aberdeen in Scotland, for themselves and in name of the whole Inhabitants of the same.

May it please your Sacred Majesty,

WE cast our selves at your Majesties Feet, hoping, according to your Majesties innate Goodness to Your other Subjects, your Majesties acceptance of this most humble, but most hearty Address of your Majesties Royal and Loyal Burghe of Aberdeen. Our fear to presume hath probably made us the last, but our resolutions for Loyalty and dutiful Wishes for your Majesties Honour and Safety were and are with the first. The sense of our Duty prompts us, and above all, your Majesties Goodness encourageth and emboldeneth us, we do most humbly therefore crave leave to profess our Faith and true Allegiance to your Sacred Majesty, and to signifie that when we were almost sunk with the sense of our Loss by the Death of our late Soveraign, your Majesties dearest Brother, of ever Glorious Memory, our Spirits were so raised with the joyful news of your Majesties peaceable Ascent on the Throne of your Royal Ancestors, that on the first notice we did with the greatest demonstrations of Joy, in our power, publish your Sacred Majesty our Dread Soveraign, and since that time hath exceedingly rejoyced us to have seen your Majesties Gracious Declaration, and the many Addresses made by your Subjects to your Majesty thereupon. Our hearts do leap within us to make this humble tender of our Lives and Fortunes for your Majesties service, which we do with the most sincere and hearty affection we can, assuring your Sacred Majesty, that in imitation of our Loyal Ancestors, none shall be more ready to defend your Sacred Majesty and Government to the last drop of our Blood, and shall not cease ever to pray, that your Sacred Majesty may have a long Life and flourishing Empire, faithful and Loyal Subjects, strong and valiant Armies and Fleets, and whatever else is desirable to make your Majesty the greatest of Monarchs.

Sealed and Signed at Command, and in presence of the Provest, Bailies, and Common-Council of the said Burghe, for themselves and in name of the whole Inhabitants of the same, by Mr. Alexander Robertson, Secretary of the said Burghe.

There has been likewise Presented to His Majesty a very Loyal Address from the Lord Bishop and Clergy of the Diocess of Down and Conner in Ireland, which His Majesty received very Graciously.

Vienna, April 5. The Count de Fugger, the Count de Bergeim and the Baron de Lerber, Ambassadors from the Elector of Bavaria to demand the Archdutchess in Marriage for his Electoral Highness arrived here the first Instant, and the next day had a private Audience of the Emperor, and are in a day or two to have a publick one. The same Answer has been given